NOTICE

All the respected teacher members are hereby informed that they have been appointed as members of the Literary Club of the college. The Literary Club has been formed with the objective of encouraging literary activities among students and nurturing their creative and linguistic talents through debates, essay writing, poetry recitations, and other related programmes.

Teacher members are requested to extend their valuable guidance and active cooperation in organizing and coordinating the activities of the club.

A meeting of the Literary Club will be convened shortly to discuss the action plan and allotment of responsibilities for the current session. The date and time of the meeting will be notified later.

Your kind support and participation in this academic initiative are deeply appreciated.
