

Field Study Report

The 6th semesters students of the Zoology department visited Khati Farm, situated at Napamua, Kaliani Doboroni Pothar on 14th May 2025 to fulfill the requirement of the syllabus. The purpose of the visit was to identify the effect and strategies of this fish farm. Fish farming including different activities like integrated fish farming, composite fish culture, including breeding etc. The main objective of this field visit was to access the fish firm's infrastructure, operational methods, fish species cultivated and management practices. This visit aims to learn the proper method's for commercial, academic and research purposes.

