Blood Donation by volunteers (09/04/2024)

Blood Donation is a noble act that saves lives and contributes significantly to the health care system. Recognising its importance, three of the NSS Volunteers, Mariani College named Sobhik Dey, Binoy Debdas and Asis Jena actively participated in the blood donation drive held on 9th April 2024. The blood donation camp was organised by Marwari Yuva Manch, Mariani Unit. The camp aimed to contribute to the blood banks and encourage a spirit of community service among the youths. NSS volunteers contribution by blood donation was encouraged and congratulated by the NSS unit, Mariani College and also the Marwari Yuva Manch. “Ever blood donor is a Super Hero.” Their efforts not only provided support to the needy but also raised awareness about need for blood donation in the community.

Cloth Donation Drive (08/04/2024 & 09/04/2024)

NSS Unit, Mariani College organised a two-day cloth donation drive under the guidance of NSS Programme Officer, Ms. Kritika Agarwal on 8th April and 9th April, 2024 nearby railway station. Thirty (30) NSS volunteers took part in the two-day campaign. They were divided into two groups. The initiative of the NSS Unit aimed to collect clothes from the students, NSS volunteers and faculty members of Mariani College to distribute to the needy and support underprivileged communities. The volunteers were assigned the role of collecting and setting up the collected items, separating the clothes in different category as male, female, child; sorting and packing the items for easy distribution and then to set up the distribution points and location for its accessibility to the public and potential beneficiaries. The drive not only provided clothes to the needy but also highlighted the importance of giving back to the society and fostering a sense of community and social responsibility among the students.

The NSS Unit of Mariani College commits to continue such initiative in future reaching more and more people and engage in future community service.

Cleanliness and Health Awareness Drive (08/04/2024)

On the eve of World Health Day, NSS Unit, Mariani College under the guidance of Programme Officer, Ms. Kritika Agarwal organised dual event Cleanliness Drive and Health Awareness Drive at Mariani Railway Bengali LP School on 8th April 2024. Fifteen (15) volunteers participated in the campaign. The event began at 11:00 a.m. with the interactive session with School Headmaster, Mrs. Suchitra Biswas and the school students regarding the event. The objective of the programme was to instill good hygiene practices, promote health awareness, promote importance of cleanliness in maintain a healthy life style and encourage community participation in maintaining a clean environment.

First of all, the NSS volunteers highlighted the objective and importance of organising both the events. They interacted with the students discussing the health and hygiene benefits of a clean environment. They also mentioned the importance of a balanced and healthy diet and regular exercise. The volunteers practised the students on hand washing using handwash and soap, and the correct techniques of maintaining personal hygiene.

All the volunteers participated in cleaning the school campus. They cleaned the classrooms, common areas, swept the floors, removed plastic waste and garbage and properly placed them in the dustbins.

The drive was a significant success which ended at 1:00 pm. It encouraged the young children's, students and staff and educated them about the importance of cleanliness and health and community development in crucial areas.

Food Drive (07/04/2024)

On 7th April, 2024, NSS Unit, Mariani College under the guidance of Programme Officer, Ms. Kritika Agarwal organised a meet-up and food drive at Sarathi Old Age Home located at Lichubari, Jorhat. Ten (10) volunteers took part in the event and went there at 11:00 a.m. along with the NSS, P.O to meet thirty (30) old and elderly loving grandmothers in the Ashram.

The event was part of the units ongoing commitment to community service and social welfare. The items for the lunch were carefully packed and carried to the Ashram. The main aim of the drive was to bring joy and support to the grandmothers living in the Ashram talking to them and spending quality time with them. Many of the grandmothers shared their life stories and experiences. The volunteers introduced themselves to the grandmothers, enjoyed by singing traditional songs, reciting poems and also sharing own experiences. All the volunteers also took active part in preparing the lunch to serve them. The grandmothers took lunch along with the volunteers. The grandmothers expressed their gratitude for the lunch and time spend with them. The drive ended successfully at 4:00 pm.

The volunteers gained deeper understanding of the challenges faced by the elderly mothers and the importance of empathy and compassion. The NSS Unit plans to continue such initiatives in future and the event served as a reminder of the importance of caring for the elderly people.

Voters Awareness Campaign (05/03/2024 and 06/03/2024)

NSS Unit, Mariani College organised door to door Voters Awareness Campaign on the theme “Mera Pehla Vote Desh Ke Liye” on 5th and 6th March, 2024 at different wards of Mariani Town. The programme was held under the guidance of NSS P.O, Mariani College, Ms. Kritika Agarwal. Around thirty (30) volunteers participated in the two-day campaign. Ward Commissioner, Ms. Kasturi Agarwal Gogoi helped a lot in organising this event. The campaign aimed to educate first time voters about the importance of their vote and encourage participation in the democratic process.

The campaign began from Mariani College where the Programme Officer briefed them on objectives, routes and key messages to convey to the first-time voters. Pledge taking ceremony was also held and the volunteers took pledge to cast their vote responsibly and encouraged others to do the same. The volunteers were divided into groups and along with the PO visited households of first-time voters in different wards of Mariani Town. They interacted with the residents equipped with posters, pamphlets and banners. The volunteers emphasized on promoting the theme “Mera Pehla Vote Desh Ke Liye”; how to register for vote, process of voting, use of EVM’S (Electronic Voting Machines). The campaign successfully raised awareness about the significance of voting and the NSS Unit took an important step towards fostering a responsible and informed electorate. The enthusiastic participation of volunteers and first-time voters made the campaign a great success.
